

Bernard Maina: Growth & International Expansion

CPA, 12+ years as a high-integrity finance principal with a proven track record in financial governance, operational execution, and complex cross-border transactions across Africa, the GCC, and international markets.

He delivers at scale across institutional, retail, and agricultural sectors, enabling market entry, operational resilience, and sustainable growth in diverse and demanding jurisdictions.

Currently, he functions as a key strategic influence and advisory anchor to multiple businesses including but not limited to, CropRemedy, Smart City Tribes, and Komodo Gardens, directly shaping their growth strategy and leading the charge on international expansion into Africa, the Middle East, and Asia. Where others advise, Bernard executes.